GEORGIA STITT & SPECIAL GUEST STARS SUSAN EAGAN. SHOSHANA BEAN PLUS WAY, WAY MORE FOR AN EVENING OF MUSIC FOR THE STAGE AT EL PORTAL THEATRE ON JUNE 2

Stitt Debuts Songs From Her New Album "This Ordinary Thursday"

Georgia Stitt, composer, musical director, conductor, arranger and pianist and her friends will gather around the piano on the MainStage for a sensational evening of music and song on Saturday, June 2 at 8 pm in the historic El Portal Theatre - NOHO. The event marks the West Coast premiere of Stitt's first CD, "This Ordinary Thursday."

Stitt's special friends Susan Egan, Shoshana Bean, Jean Louise Kelly, Adam Hunter and Dan Callaway will be joined by Chad Doreck and Kathleen Montelone, finalists from Grease: You're the One That I Want!

Stitt is married to Tony Award Winner Jason Robert Brown, best known for his musicals Parade, The Last Five Years, Songs From a New World and 13. Stitt's most recent achievement is the release of her debut album, "This Ordinary Thursday," featuring Faith Prince, Jen Colella, Sara Ramirez, Susan Egan, Titus Burgess, Cheyenne Jackson, Kelly O'Hara, and Will Chase. Stitt also just completed the reality TV show Grease: You're The One That I Want!, as vocal coach to the contestants.

Special guest stars Susan Egan and Shoshana Bean have both starred on Broadway.

Egan has traversed all four corners of the entertainment industry, making powerful impressions in theatre, film, television and music. She starred on Broadway as Thoroughly Modern Millie, won critical acclaim as Broadway's (longest-running) "Sally Bowles" in Cabaret, and received Tony Award and Drama Desk nominations for "Best Actress" as the original "Belle" in Disney's Beauty and the Beast. And Entertainment Weekly calls her website, susanegan.net, the "slickest site around."

Shoshana Bean is an American stage actor and singer known for her roles in Broadway musicals, including the off Broadway Godspell, was also cast in the original production of Broadway's Hairspray, originating the role of "Shelley" and understudying the roles of "Tracy Turnblad" and "Prudy Pingleton." Bean subsequently performed in the national tour of Leader of the Pack. Her greatest fame came when she was cast as the replacement for Tony Award winner Idina Menzel in Broadway's Wicked.

Gerogia Stitt and her musical friends will appear one night only at the historic El Portal Theatre in North Hollywood on Saturday, June 2 at 8 pm. Tickets are $40 and $30 can be purchased on line at <http://www.elportaltheatre.com/> or by calling 1-866-811-4111 or 818-508-4200.
